Description	If the respondent worked for a temporary employment agency, the questions refer to the firm or organisation where he or she actually carried out the work.
Help	For external consultants brought in to advise a firm or organisation on specific aspects of its operations the questions refer to the firm providing the consultancy services (including the respondent if he/she was a freelance consultant).

Code	E2_Q01a
Question	What was your occupation or job title?
Instruction	1. Avoid vague occupational titles such as manager, clerk, or farmer. 2. Descriptions must always reflect the respondent's most important duties. For example, accountant would be certified industrial accountant, clerk would be sales clerk, farmer would be dairy farmer, and manager would be regional sales manager, and teacher would be secondary school teacher.
Responses	<table><tr><td>00</td><td></td></tr></table>	00		string {1 : 500}

Code	E2_Q01b
Question	What were your most important responsibilities? Please give a full description.
Instruction	Descriptions must always reflect the respondent's most important activities or duties. For example, stocking shelves, keeping track of costs and payments, looking after sick animals, caring for sick people, fixing sore teeth, building roads and bridges.
Responses	<table><tr><td>00</td><td></td></tr></table>	00		string {1 : 500}
00

Code	E2_Q02a
Question	In what kind of business, industry or service did you work? Please give a full description.
Instruction	1. Describe specifically the kind of business, industry or service where the respondent worked. 2. Give an exact description of the industry, indicating both a general and specific function for the employer. For example: copper mine, fountain pen manufacturer, wholesale grocery supplier, retail bookshop, road construction, shoe repair service. 3. In the case of a farming business, record the acreage.
Help	For external consultants brought in to advise a firm or organisation on specific aspects of its operations the questions refer to the firm providing the consultancy services (including the respondent if he/she was a freelance consultant).

Question	In which sector of the economy did you work? Was it ...
Instruction	1. Read categories to respondent. 2. If the respondent worked for a temporary employment agency the questions refer to the firm or organisation where he/she actually carried out his/her work. 3. Private companies in which the government is minority shareholder should be classified as belonging to the private sector.
Help	1. The private sector includes all companies and organisations that are not in public ownership. 2. The public sector includes: all parts of the public administration at the national, regional or local levels; public services provided by the state or from state funds (including publicly run schools, hospitals, universities, etc.); and publicly-owned companies. 3. The non-profit sector includes all organisations that are not publicly funded but whose principle aim is not to generate a profit and would include charities, many NGOs, etc. 4. For external consultants brought in to advise a firm or organisation on specific aspects of its operations the questions refer to the firm providing the consultancy services (including the respondent if he/she was a freelance consultant).
Responses	01	The private sector (for example a company)
	02	The public sector (for example the local government or a state school)
	03	A non-profit organisation (for example a charity, professional association or religious organisation)

Question	Still talking about your last job: At what age or in which year did you start working for your former employer?
Instruction	Enter age OR year.
Help	1. In the case that the respondent has returned to working for an employer after a period in which he/she did not work for that employer, only the last episode should be counted, except in the following cases: * When people were temporarily away from their job because of holiday, sickness, maternity leave, sabbatical, etc. * When people were temporarily laid off, but received at least 50% of their wage or salary from their employer. In these latter two cases the start of the episode before the temporary break should be indicated. 2. In the case that the formal status of the organisation has changed since the respondent started working there, for example as a result of a merger or reorganisation, the respondent should report the full period of time he/she has been working for the organisation or part thereof.

Question	Now I would like to ask you some general questions. Including yourself, how many people usually live in your household? Please include people who are temporarily living elsewhere.
Instruction	1. Household membership is defined by the existence of SHARED EXPENSES (including benefiting from expenses as well contributing to expenses) and the place of usual residence. 2. A person shall be considered 'usually resident' if he/she spends most of his/her daily rest at this household evaluated over the last one year.
Help	1. Boarders and lodgers are only considered as members of the household IF they share in the household expenses. 2. Students sharing a dwelling can only be considered as members of one household IF they share in the household expenses. 3. People absent for a long period due to work, but continuing to have a clear financial relation with the household, are considered members of the household (e.g. head of household working abroad). 4. Children who are educated away from home should be considered members of the household if they have no private address and continue to maintain close relations (e.g. come home every weekend).
