REPORT

TO

His Excellency JOHN POYNTZ, EARL SPENCER, K.G., &c., &c.,
Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,—

As directed by the provisions of the 26 Vic., cap. 11, sec. 49, the 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 90, sec. 16, and the 7 & 8 Vic., cap. 81, sec. 56, I have the honour to transmit to your Excellency, in order that the same may be laid before Parliament, General Abstracts of the Births, Deaths, and Marriages registered in Ireland during the year 1869.

A General Abstract of the number of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, registered in the year 1869, was presented to Parliament in the Session of 1870. The Report now submitted contains detailed Tables of the ages and condition of persons married; of Births, distinguishing legitimate from illegitimate; and of Deaths, and their causes.

The Acts for the Registration of Births and Deaths, and Roman Catholic Marriages, came into operation on the 1st of January, 1864, but that for the Registration of Protestant Marriages of all denominations has been in force since the 1st of April, 1845.

For the purposes of Registration, the country has been divided into 163 Superintendent Registrars' Districts—co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions—and into 781 Registrars' Districts, which, with a few exceptions, are of equal extent with the Dispensary Districts formed under the Medical Charities Act.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

The estimated population of Ireland in the middle of 1869 was 5,443,919; the persons whose marriages were registered, amounted to 54,554, the number of marriages being 27,277; children born alive whose births were registered, amounted to 145,659; and the number of deaths registered was 89,593. The emigrants from Ireland during the year 1869 amounted to 66,568. In the previous year—1868—there were registered 27,699 marriages, 146,051 births, and 86,185 deaths; the number of emigrants was 61,018.

MARRIAGES.

27,277 marriages were registered in Ireland during 1869, being in the proportion of 1 marriage to every 200 of the estimated population. The ratio in England in the same year was 1 in 124.

654 men and 3,748 women contracted marriage before they had attained their twenty-first year. The proportion of males married under age was 2·40; of females, 13·74 per cent. The proportions in England and Wales in 1869 were—males, 7·22, and females, 21·37 per cent.

Of widowers, 2,779, and of widows, 1,490 were re-married; the proportion to the total marriages being 10·19 per cent. of widowers, and 5·46 per cent. of widows. The like proportions in England and Wales were 13·97 per cent. widowers, and 9·45 per cent. widows.

According to the provisions of the Registration Acts, every registry of a marriage is required to be signed by the parties married, two witnesses, and the officiating clergyman. A test of the elementary education of the persons contracting marriage is thus afforded by comparing the number who write their names in the registers, with the number who make a mark. Of 54,554 persons married in 1869, 22,449 (9,979 men and 12,470 women) signed the registers with marks; being in the proportion of 41.15 per cent.—36.58 per cent. of the males, and 45.72 per cent. of the females married.

The corresponding rates in England and Wales for the same year were 19.9 per cent. of males, and 27.6 per cent. of females.

The marriage registers contain a column in which the age of each of the parties married is inserted; but as the law only requires it to be stated whether the parties are "of full age" or "minors," the precise age at marriage is not always entered in the registers. In 1869 the exact ages of both parties were given in 10,449 instances. Of these 9,344 were bachelors, and 9,890 spinsters; 1,105 were widowers, and 559 widows. The largest number of wives married between the ages of 21 and 30—the number being 6,450, or more than one-half of the whole number whose ages are recorded. The largest number of husbands—6,151—also married between 21 and 30 years of age.

300 bachelors were married to widows, both of whose ages at the time of marriage are recorded. 143 of these widows and 148 of the bachelors married between 25 and 35 years of age. Of 846 widowers who married spinsters, 444 of the latter were between 20 and 30 years of age; whilst the largest number of the widowers on their re-marriages ranged chiefly between 30 and 40.

Of widowers and widows married, whose ages at the time of marriage are stated, there were 259 couples. Of these the largest number of widows appears to have been between 35 and 45, and of widowers between 50 and 60. 2 widowers and 2 widows were married when they were above 70 years old.

With respect to Roman Catholic Marriages, the 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 90, directs that parties about to contract marriage shall produce to the clergyman celebrating the marriage a certificate, to be procured from the Registrar, filled up as far as possible by that officer with the particulars necessary to be registered, which certificate the parties married, the witnesses, and the officiating clergyman are required to sign. When so filled up the certificate is to be returned within three days to the Registrar by the husband, under a penalty of ten pounds.

With a view to facilitate the registration of marriages under the Act referred to, and at the special request of several dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church,—with the approval of the Law Officers of the Crown—(who at that time were the Right Hon. Thomas O'Hagan, M.P., and James A. Lawson, esq., Q.C.)—I instructed the District Registrars to furnish to each parish priest, who should apply for them, forms of certificate to be duly filled, signed, and forwarded to the Registrar on the occasion of a marriage, thus saving the husband the inconvenience of procuring from the Registrar a form of certificate previous to his marriage, as required by the Statute.* I also furnished all the Roman Catholic clergy in Ireland with copies of the Act above referred to, in order that the requirements of the law might be known to them previous to the Act coming into operation.

The number of marriages; proportion per cent. of persons married who wrote their names in the registers, of minors, of widowers, and of

The extent and position of each of these divisions are specified at page 32.

Of the total number of marriages registered (27,277) 18,986 were celebrated by Roman Catholic clergymen, and entered in the register books by the Registrars in accordance with the 26th and 27th Vic., cap. 90; and 8,291 marriages were of members of the various Protestant persuasions. Of the latter marriages 4,739 were in churches and chapels of the Established Church, 2,515 in Presbyterian Meeting-houses, 230 in "Registered Buildings," 792 in the Registrars' offices, and 15 according to the usages of the Society of Friends.

Of the entire number of marriages in 1869 there were contracted in the quarter ending the last day of March, 10,181; of June, 5,565; of September, 5,342; of December, 6,189.

The following table gives a statement showing in continuation of the return in my report for 1868, the number of marriages solemnized in Ireland under the Marriages Act of 1844, distinguishing the mode of celebration:—

provisions of the 7th & 8th Vic., cap. 81, I am enabled to state respecting other religious persuasions, that there were 1,487 Churches and Chapels of the Established Church, 584 registered Presbyterian Meeting-houses, and 230 Registered Buildings belonging to various denominations, in which marriages might lawfully be solemnized, on the 31st December, 1869. During the year 1869 there was an increase of 12 in the number of such places in the Established Church; of 4 in the Presbyterian Church; and of 5 in other religious communities. BIRTHS.

The births registered in Ireland during 1869, amounted to 145,659. Of these, 74,921 were males, and 70,738 females, being in the proportion of 106 boys to every 100 girls. In England, in the same year, the number of males to 100 females whose births were registered was 104.

The rate per cent. of births to the estimated population was 2.676, or 1 in 37 of the estimated population. In England the rate per cent. was 3.536.

There were 4,179 illegitimate births, of which 2,129 were those of males, and 2,050 females; the proportion to the total number of births being 2.9 in every 100. The rate in England was 5.8 per cent. In Ireland, the highest rates, 5.3 and 3.3, of illegitimate children in every 100 born, occurred in the North-Eastern and South-Eastern Divisions respectively.

The following table shows the proportion of legitimate and illegitimate births registered in each of the eight Divisions in 1864, 1865, 1866, 1867, 1868, and 1869.

Of the persons whose deaths were registered during the year 26·02 in every 100 were children under 5 years old—27·91 per cent. of the males and 24·12 per cent. of the females. 14·91 per cent. of the men, and 16·91 per cent. of the women, whose deaths were registered had passed their 75th year. 61 of the males and 92 of the females in every 10,000 were stated in the returns to have been over 95 years of age.

26,287 deaths were registered during the first quarter of the year; 24,138 during the second; 18,497 during the third; and 20,671 during the fourth quarter.

EMIGRATION.

During the year 1869 the number of emigrants who left the ports of Ireland amounted to 66,568; of these 39,614 were males and 26,954 females. Of the whole number, 13,863 were from Leinster; 14,857 from Munster; 19,679 from Ulster; and 11,065 from Connaught: 7,104 persons did not state the county or province to which they belonged.

Of the emigrants in 1869, 10·7 per cent. were under 15 years of age; 78·0 per cent. were 15 to 35 years old; 10·4 per cent. were 35 and upwards; and the ages of ·9 per cent. were not specified in the returns.

METEOROLOGY.

The following is an abstract of the Meteorological Observations taken during the year 1869, at the Ordnance Survey Office, Phoenix Park, Dublin, kindly furnished by Captain Wilkinson, R.E., by direction of the Superintendent of the Ordnance Survey.

The barometer was highest during the year at 9.30, P.M., on 5th December, when it stood 30·609 inches, the air being calm; it was lowest on 28th January, at 9.30 P.M., wind S.E., when it read 28·598 inches.

The highest temperature in the air was 84·2°, on 28th August, and the lowest was 11·0°, on 27th December.

Rain or snow fell on 192 days. The greatest rain-fall in 24 hours was 1·360 inches, on 30th September, wind S.E. The total amount registered during the year was 28·018 inches.

The prevailing wind was the S.W., from which point it blew on 114 days; it was from N.W. on 65 days; from W. on 50 days; from N.E. on 32 days; from S.E. on 29 days; from N. and E. on 19 days each; from S. on 10 days; and on 27 days the air was calm at 9.30 A.M. The total pressure of S.W. wind was 436·75 lbs. per square foot, giving an average of 3·83 lbs. for each day it blew. The strongest wind was from S. on 30th December, when the pressure was 25 lbs. per square foot.

I beg here to repeat the observations made in my former Reports to your Excellency, with respect to the working of the Acts for the Registration of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in Ireland, as I regret to state that the numbers of these events registered in 1869 do not show much improvement compared with previous years:—

“In several instances prosecutions have been resorted to with some advantage; but notwithstanding the exertions made to induce a general compliance with the law throughout the country, numerous cases of neglect to register births and deaths have been reported to me by the District Registrars, but frequently at too late a period after their occurrence to allow of the parties being proceeded against at the Petty Sessions.

“I regret to add that the registration of marriages under the 26th & 27th Vic., cap. 90, is not at all satisfactory in some Districts, owing to the Clergy who have celebrated the marriages having declined to sign the necessary certificates.

“The marriages solemnized under the provisions of the 7th & 8th Vic., cap. 81, which came into operation in 1845, are, I believe, all registered.

“The following are the ratios of Births, Deaths, and Marriages to population in different countries compared with the ratio in Ireland in 1864 [and in 1865, 1866, 1867, 1868, and 1869]:—

“It will be seen from the foregoing figures, compiled from the Statistical Tables published by the Board of Trade, how incomplete was Registration in Ireland in 1864, and comparing the number of Births, Deaths, and Marriages recorded in that year with those since annually registered, I regret to state that there appears but little improvement in the subsequent years:—

Following this Report are summaries of the Quarterly Reports issued in 1869, and the Appendix contains a letter addressed to me by Dr. Burke, the Superintendent of Medical Statistics, respecting the causes of death—to which I beg to refer.

I have the honour to be

Your Excellency's very faithful servant,

WILLIAM DONNELLY,
Registrar-General.

GENERAL REGISTER OFFICE,
Dublin, 13th April, 1872.

SUMMARY OF THE QUARTERLY REPORTS, 1869.

First Quarter—January, February, March.

Quarterly
Reports.

First
Quarter.

Marriages.—There were 10,181 marriages registered in Ireland during the first quarter of 1869, a number affording an annual ratio of 1 in every 134 or .748 per cent. of the estimated population. The average number of marriages registered in the corresponding quarter of the years 1865–8 was 12,177.

Births.—The births registered during the first quarter of the year 1869 amounted to 38,595—19,975 boys and 18,620 girls—affording an annual ratio of 1 in every 35.3, or 2.84 per cent. of the estimated population. The average number of births registered during the corresponding quarter of the previous four years was 38,559.

Deaths.—There were 26,287 deaths—12,935 males, and 13,352 females—registered during the quarter, affording an annual ratio of 1 in 51.8, or 1.93 per cent. of the estimated population. The average number registered during the first quarter of the preceding four years was 28,077.

Emigration.—According to the returns obtained by the Enumerators, the number of emigrants who left the ports of Ireland, during the quarter ended 31st March, 1869, amounted to 10,669—7,029 males and 3,640 females—being 1,858 less than the number who emigrated during the corresponding quarter of 1868.

Estimated Increase of the Population.—The number of births registered during the quarter ended 31st March, 1869, being 38,595; the deaths 26,287; and the number of emigrants 10,669 (according to the returns obtained by the enumerators at the several seaports);—an increase of 1,639 would, therefore, appear to have taken place in the population of Ireland during that period.

PRICES OF PROVISIONS, AND PAUPERISM.

The average price of Messrs. Manders and Co.'s 4-lb. loaf for the quarter ending 31st March, 1869, was 7*d.*, being 2*d.* cheaper than it was during the corresponding period of 1868, but one penny higher than in the first quarter of the year 1864.

At the Dublin Corn Exchange the average price of oatmeal for the quarter was 15*s.* 8*d.* per cwt.; during the first quarter of the previous year it was 16*s.* 10*d.*; in the corresponding period of 1864 it was only 11*s.*

At the Dublin Potato market the average prices of potatoes during the quarter ranged from 3*s.* 5*d.* to 4*s.* 10*d.* per cwt., against 4*s.* 6*d.* to 5*s.* 2*d.* in the corresponding quarter of 1868; the average prices for the first quarter of 1864 were only 2*s.* 6*d.* to 3*s.* 3*d.*

The average prices of beef at the Dublin Cattle Market during the quarter were 54*s.* 6*d.* to 70*s.* per cwt., against 49*s.* 6*d.* to 63*s.* 6*d.* in the corresponding period of 1868; for the first quarter of 1864 the average prices were 51*s.* 6*d.* to 64*s.* 6*d.*

The following statement shows the average prices of the foregoing articles of food in Dublin during the first quarter of the years 1864–9:—

The average number of persons in Ireland receiving in-door relief on Saturdays during the first quarter of 1869 was 59,130, against 61,264 for the corresponding period of 1868.

The average weekly number of persons receiving out-door relief during the quarter was 19,047, against 18,159 during the first quarter of 1868.

Of the persons receiving indoor relief during the first quarter of 1869, an average number of 489 in each week were located in Asylums for the Blind and the Deaf and Dumb, and in Extern Hospitals; in the corresponding quarter of 1868 the average weekly number was 474.

THE WEATHER.

The mean height of the barometer during the first quarter of the year 1869 was 29·891 inches (in the corresponding quarter of 1868, 1867, 1866, 1865, and 1864 it was 29·901 inches, 29·642 inches, 29·521 inches, 29·651 inches, and 29·725 inches respectively); the highest reading (30·452) was on the 23rd March, at 9.30, A.M., wind N.E., and the lowest (28·598) was on the 28th January, at 9.30 P.M., wind S.E.

The mean temperature of the air during the quarter was 42·4° (it was 44·1°, 39·9°, 41·5°, 38·9°, and 40·2°, respectively, in the corresponding quarter of 1868, 1867, 1866, 1865, and 1864); the maximum temperature (59·0°) was on the 18th February, and the minimum (26·6°) was on the 11th March.

Rain or snow fell on 54 days during the quarter. The rain-fall measured 7·738 inches; in the first quarter of 1868, 1867, 1866, 1865, and 1864 it was 5·878 inches, 8·188 inches, 7·508 inches, 5·979 inches, and 5·227 inches respectively. The greatest monthly rain-fall during the quarter was in January, when 3·541 inches were registered.

Westerly winds were, as usual, the most prevalent, it having blown (at 9.30, A.M.) on 34 days from S.W., on 13 days from W., and on 12 days from N.W. The wind blew on eight days from S.E., on 7 days from N.E., on 6 days from N., on 3 days from S., and on two days from E; the air was calm on 5 days at 9.30, A.M.

HEALTH OF THE PEOPLE.

Though the deaths registered during the months of January, February, and March, 1869, were 1,790 less than the average number registered in the corresponding period of the years 1865, 1866, 1867, and 1868, yet the amount of illness throughout the country was very considerable.

Affections of the respiratory organs were most prevalent, and caused great mortality, especially among the aged and those of tender years.

Of zymotic diseases that which proved most fatal was scarlet fever.

Of the 13 deaths registered in the Drumquin District, Castlederg Union, 9 resulted from scarlet fever.

Many other instances might be adduced in proof of the sad ravages committed by this disease.

Several of the Registrars referred to the prevalence of whooping-cough, measles, and croup, the last named disease having been met with most frequently in the South-Western Division. In the Castletown District, Castletown Union, of the 37 deaths registered 7 were ascribed to croup; in the Carrigaline District, Kinsale Union, 5 out of the 18 deaths registered resulted from croup; in Skull district croup caused 6 of the 32 deaths registered.

Several deaths occurred in Dublin from that disease which has received many designations, such as cerebro-spinal fever, cerebro-spinal arachnitis, purpuric fever, &c. Death, however, took place in some instances without any purpuric complication. Most of the persons attacked were under 20 years of age; the majority were males.

Quarterly
Reports.
First
Quarter.

The Registrar of Dundalk District stated that during the first quarter of 1869 the locality had been visited by an epidemic of cerebro-spinal fever; 23 cases having appeared during the quarter, of which 11 proved fatal. In addition to these there were 4 other deaths registered which were attributed to other causes, but which he had every reason to believe were cases of cerebro-spinal fever. All the cases, except 6, occurred in the town in poorer localities; and in no instance had he been led to believe that it was by contagion. The Registrars of the Louth and Droiskin Districts, in the Dundalk Union, reported that in each of their districts 1 death was caused by "Black Death." The Registrar of Castleisland District, Tralee Union, recorded one case of malignant purpura, which terminated fatally within 24 hours. The child died in 2 hours after his visit. The case presented the type and symptoms of the disease described by the Dublin physicians a few years ago as having occurred in that city.

In Belfast, No. 4 District, 1 death from small-pox occurred. The Registrar did not state whether the person whose death from small-pox he recorded had been protected by vaccination. The deaths from small-pox of two persons who had not been vaccinated, were registered during the quarter in Castlebar.

The Registrar of the Hollymount District, Ballinrobe Union, mentioned "one case of small-pox in a child who had been successfully inoculated some years before; several other children in the same cabin, who had been successfully vaccinated, escaped."

One death from acute glanders occurred in the Letterkenny District, Letterkenny Union.

The Registrar of the Feakle District, Scarriff Union, stated that "There was 1 death registered 'child-birth,' four days ill, and no medical attendant."

Of the 32 deaths which occurred in Dunmanway District during the first quarter of 1869, in 15 instances the cause of death was uncertified, as there had been no medical attendant.

A large number of the persons whose deaths were registered during the quarter were stated to have attained great ages.

The Registrars of Rostrevor, Lurganboy, Cork City, No. 2, Cookstown, Tarbert, No. 2, (Glin Union), and Clashmore, reported favourably on the sanitary condition of their districts; on the other hand the Registrars of Castletown (Navan), Gortin, Mohill, Knocknadona, and Kilkeel, No. 1, complained of the defective sanitary arrangements.

NUMBER OF MARRIAGES, BIRTHS, AND DEATHS, REGISTERED IN EACH OF THE PROVINCES.

Marriages.—Grouping the Unions or Superintendent Registrars' Districts by Provinces, it will be observed from the following table that there were 3,642 marriages registered in the province of Munster during the first quarter of 1869, affording an annual ratio of 1 marriage in every 96 of the population; and in Connaught 2,115, affording a ratio of 1 in 101; whereas in Ulster the ratio was only 1 in 181; and in Leinster, 1 in 179. As has been remarked in former reports, the first quarter of the year is much the most favoured by the Roman Catholic population for marriage; this fact accounts for the great difference between the marriage-rates in Connaught and Munster, and those in Ulster and Leinster.

The following Table shows, by PROVINCES, the number of Marriages registered during the FIRST quarter of the years 1867, 1868, and 1869; together with the annual ratio to the estimated Population.

Births.—Of the 38,595 births registered in Ireland during the first quarter of 1869, 8,586 occurred in Leinster, affording a ratio of only 1 in 39 of the estimated population. In Munster the number registered was 10,731; in Ulster, 12,959; and in Connaught, 6,319, affording respectively an annual ratio of 1 in 33, 36, and 34 of the estimated population.

The following Table shows, by PROVINCES, the number of Births and Deaths registered during the FIRST quarter of the years 1867, 1868, and 1869, together with the ratio to the estimated Population.

Deaths.—Whilst the births registered in the province of Leinster, during the quarter ending 31st March, 1869, afforded the lowest ratio, the deaths registered give the highest rate of mortality, the number being 7,042, equal to an annual ratio of 1 in 48. In Munster the number registered was 6,629, yielding a ratio of 1 in 53; in Ulster, 9,396, or 1 in 49; and in Connaught, 3,220, or 1 in 66 of the estimated population.

Second Quarter.—April, May, June.

Second Quarter.

Marriages.—The number of marriages registered in Ireland during the second quarter of 1869 amounted to 5,565, equal to an annual ratio of 1 in every 245, or 409 per cent. of the estimated population. The average number registered in the corresponding period of the preceding five years was 5,610.

Quarterly
Reports.
Second
Quarter.

Births.—The births registered during the second quarter of 1869 amounted to 39,439—20,325 boys, and 19,114 girls—affording an annual ratio of 1 in every 35, or 2·90 per cent. of the estimated population. The average number of births registered during the corresponding quarter of the preceding five years was 37,841.

Deaths.—There were 24,138 deaths—12,166 males, and 11,972 females—registered during the quarter, affording an annual ratio of 1 in 55, or 1·77 per cent. of the estimated population. The average number registered during the second quarter of the previous five years was 23,893.

Emigration.—According to the returns obtained by the Enumerators, the number of emigrants who left the ports of Ireland, during the quarter ended 30th June, 1869, amounted to 28,992—17,086 males and 11,906 females. The average number of emigrants during the corresponding quarter of the preceding five years was 37,571.

Estimated Decrease of the Population.—The number of births registered during the quarter ended 30th June, 1869, being 39,439; the deaths 24,138; and the number of emigrants 28,992—(according to the returns obtained by the enumerators at the several seaports); a decrease of 13,691 would, therefore, appear to have taken place in the population of Ireland during that period.

PRICES OF PROVISIONS, AND PAUPERISM.

The average price of Messrs. Manders and Co.'s 4 lb. loaf for the quarter ending 30th June, 1869, was 6½*d.*, being 2½*d.* cheaper than it was during the corresponding period of 1868, but one halfpenny higher than in the second quarter of the year 1864.

At the Dublin Corn Exchange the average price of oatmeal for the quarter was 15*s.* 6*d.* per cwt.; during the second quarter of 1868, it was 18*s.* 3*d.*; in the corresponding period of 1864 it was only 10*s.* 6*d.*

At the Dublin Potatoe market the average prices of potatoes during the quarter ranged from 3*s.* to 4*s.* 11*d.* per cwt., against 4*s.* 8*d.* to 5*s.* 6*d.* in the corresponding quarter of 1868; the average prices for the second quarter of 1864 were only 2*s.* 11*d.* to 3*s.* 8*d.*

The average prices of beef at the Dublin Cattle market during the quarter were 56*s.* 6*d.* to 74*s.* per cwt., against 54*s.* 6*d.* to 67*s.* in the corresponding period of the year previous; for the second quarter of 1864 the average prices were 53*s.* to 65*s.* 6*d.*

The following statement shows the average prices of the foregoing articles of food, in Dublin, during the second quarter of the years 1864—9:

The average number of persons in Ireland receiving in-door relief on Saturdays during the second quarter of the year 1869 was 53,476, against 55,731 for the corresponding period of 1868.

The average weekly number of persons receiving out-door relief during the quarter was 17,978, against 17,568 during the second quarter of 1868.

Of the persons receiving in-door relief during the second quarter of 1869 an average number of 493 in each week were located in Asylums for the Blind and the Deaf and Dumb, and in Extern Hospitals; in the corresponding quarter of 1868 the average weekly number was 481.

THE WEATHER.

Quarterly
Reports.
Second
Quarter.

The mean height of the barometer during the second quarter of the year 1869 was 30·002 inches, against an average of 29·847 inches for the corresponding quarter of the five preceding years; the highest reading (30·438) was on the 29th April, at 9.30 A.M., wind E., and the lowest (29·105) was on the 6th May, at 9.30 P.M., wind N.E.

The mean temperature of the air during the quarter was 51·0° against an average of 53·4° for the corresponding quarter of the five preceding years; the maximum temperature (76·1°) was on the 29th June, and the minimum (29·6°) on the 12th May.

Rain or snow fell on 46 days during the quarter. The rain-fall measured 7·456 inches, against an average of 5·237 inches in the corresponding quarter of the preceding five years. The greatest monthly rain-fall during the quarter was in May, when 5·187 inches, or nearly three-fourths of the whole amount, were registered.

The most prevalent wind during the quarter was the N.W., it having blown from that point on 22 days. It blew on 16 days each from the N.E. and S.W., on 12 days from the E., on 8 days from the S.E., on 6 days from the W., on 5 days from the N., on 2 days from the S., and the air was calm on 4 days at 9.30, A.M.

HEALTH OF THE PEOPLE.

During the quarter ended June 30th, 1869, the public health was, on the whole, satisfactory. The month of May was colder than usual and, consequently, during that period the deaths from diseases of the respiratory organs were numerous, especially among the aged and the very young.

The number of deaths registered during the quarter exceeded the number registered during the corresponding period of 1868, by 1,831; this increase may be attributed to the cold weather in May, the prevalence in certain districts of scarlet fever, measles, whooping-cough, and croup, and in some measure to the improved working of the Registration Act.

An epidemic of scarlet fever visited Drogheda. Of the 46 deaths registered in No. 2 District (west ward) 12 deaths resulted from scarlet fever. Six deaths from the same cause occurred in St. Mary's District, and the Registrars of both districts reported the continuance of the epidemic. In the Roslea District of the Clones Union it proved very fatal; no less than 11 of the 26 deaths registered were ascribed to this disease.

The Registrar of the Ferns District, Enniscorthy Union, observed that "The deaths do not exceed the average, yet in one instance a family of 5 was reduced to 1 by scarlatina anginosa." The Registrar of Kilshannig District, Mallow Union, stated that "Scarlatina assumed an epidemic form during the whole of this quarter and the end of the last. It is still prevalent and of a malignant type."

Of 53 deaths registered in the Comber District, Newtownards Union, 10 were caused by measles and its sequelæ. The Registrar of Gort reported that "measles prevailed epidemically and proved fatal in 12 instances, chiefly from secondary affections of the lungs. In most of the cases medical assistance was not sought for until fatal symptoms had set in."

Typhus fever of a malignant character prevailed in No. 2 District, Athlone; 2 deaths resulted therefrom. One death from typhoid fever, complicated with cerebro-spinal meningitis, occurred in the Easky District in the Union of Dromore West.

Whooping-cough proved very fatal in Rinvyle District of the Clifden Union. Of the 28 deaths registered during the quarter 12 resulted from this disease. In the Roundstone District, No. 2, Clifden Union, 4 members of one family were carried off by whooping-cough. It also prevailed in the Feakle District, Scarriff Union, and in Dingle and Kanturk Districts.

Nearly one-fifth of the deaths registered in Rathvilly District, Baltinglass Union, were caused by croup. In Bridgetown District, Wexford Union, 4 children died from croup, which disease the Registrar reported as very prevalent. Of the total deaths (35) registered in Kilcatherine District, Castletown Union, 11 were caused by croup. In the Unions of Dunmanway, Skull, and Tralee, croup was prevalent.

During the quarter 16 cases of cerebro-spinal fever occurred in Dundalk; of these one-half proved fatal.

In the Districts of Annamoe (Rathdrum Union), Enniscorthy, No. 2 District, and Newmarket (Kanturk Union), mumps prevailed.

No deaths from small-pox were reported, and many of the Registrars stated that the Compulsory Vaccination Act was working satisfactorily. The Registrar of the Killala District stated that "Parents show an unwillingness to bring in their children for vaccination. The law having been put in force in the district, parents are now bringing in their children to have them vaccinated."

The deaths of many who were stated to have attained great ages were reported. In the Keady District, Armagh Union, the Registrar stated as follows:—"Of the deaths registered 21 were of persons over 70 years of age, and of these 7 were over 80 and 2 over 90." Twenty-five of the persons who died in Magherafelt were from 70 to 96 years of age. The Registrar of Moville, Inishowen Union, stated, "In 11 cases the ages were 70 and upwards, and in 1 case the age was 103." In Terryglass District, Borrisokane Union, 4 of the persons whose deaths were registered had attained the age of 70, and 1 was stated to have reached the 104th year. The Registrar of Castlemartyr, Middleton Union, stated as follows:—"The death of a woman of 103 years was registered, remarkable not only for her great age, but also that (as she used to assert) she never required medicine, and up to the last was able to pursue her ordinary avocations." The death of a centenarian was registered in the Dunmanway District, and another in the Shanagolden District, Glin Union.

As to sanitary improvements the Registrar of Kilnaleck District, Cavan Union, stated that he could not say much; he remarked, that "It is difficult to break the lower orders off their old and filthy habits." The Registrar of Mohill said that the sanitary arrangements of that town were most imperfect, no improvement having taken place since his last report.

The Registrars of Kilmakevoge in Waterford Union, Banbridge, Bandon, Cork (Nos. 7 and 8 Districts), Coolmountain in Dunmanway Union, and Boherboy in Kanturk Union, all reported favourably on the sanitary condition of their districts. The Registrar of the last-named district registered 1 death from laceration of the womb during parturition, and 2 from exhaustion, the effects of difficult labour.

Births.—There were 34,021 births registered in Ireland during the quarter ending 30th September, 1869—17,441 boys and 16,580 girls—representing an annual ratio of 1 in every 40·0, or 2·50 per cent. of the estimated population; the average number of births registered during the corresponding quarter of the preceding five years was 34,001.

Deaths.—The deaths registered in Ireland during the third quarter of the year 1869 amounted to 18,497—9,496 males and 9,001 females—affording an annual ratio of 1 in every 73·6, or 1·36 per cent. of the estimated population. The average number registered during the corresponding quarter of the previous five years was 18,669.

Emigration.—According to the returns obtained by the Enumerators, the number of emigrants who left the ports of Ireland during the quarter ended 30th September, 1869, amounted to 16,254—9,484 males and 6,770 females—the average number who emigrated during the corresponding quarter of the previous five years was 20,435.

Estimated Decrease of the Population.—The number of births registered during the quarter ended 30th September, 1869, being 34,021; the deaths 18,497; and the number of emigrants 16,254—(according to the returns obtained by the enumerators at the several seaports);—a decrease of 730 would, therefore, appear to have taken place in the population of Ireland during that period.

PRICES OF PROVISIONS, AND PAUPERISM.

The average price of Messrs. Manders & Co.'s 4-lb. loaf for the quarter ending 30th September, 1869, was 7*d.*, being one penny cheaper than it was during the corresponding period of 1868, but one penny dearer than in the third quarter of the year 1864.

At the Dublin Corn Exchange the average price of oatmeal for the quarter was 16*s.* 10*d.* per cwt.; in the third quarter of 1868 it was 16*s.* 5*d.*; while in the corresponding quarter of 1864 it was only 10*s.* 8*d.*

At the Dublin Potato market the average prices of potatoes during the quarter ranged from 4*s.* 10*d.* to 6*s.* 8*d.* per cwt., against 4*s.* 9*d.* to 6*s.* 5*d.* in the corresponding period of 1868; the average prices for the third quarter of 1864 were only 2*s.* 7*d.* to 3*s.* 10*d.*

The average prices of beef at the Dublin Cattle market during the quarter were 49*s.* 6*d.* to 68*s.* per cwt., against 51*s.* 0*d.* to 64*s.* 6*d.* in the corresponding period of 1868; for the third quarter of 1864 the prices were 51*s.* to 62*s.* 6*d.*

THE WEATHER.

The mean height of the barometer during the third quarter of the year 1869 was 30·130 inches, against an average of 29·799 inches for the corresponding quarter of the preceding five years (1864–8); the highest reading (30·559 inches) was on the 1st September, at 9.30 p.m., wind N.E., and the lowest (29·628 inches) was on the 29th July, at 3.30, p.m., wind S.W.

The mean temperature of the air during the quarter was 59·4°, against an average of 58·8° for the corresponding quarter of the five years immediately preceding; the maximum temperature (84·2°) was on the 28th August, and the minimum (33·4°) on the 2nd September.

Rain fell on 46 days during the quarter. The rain-fall measured 6·115 inches; the average in the corresponding quarter of the preceding five years being 6·216 inches. The greatest monthly rain-fall during the quarter was in September, when 4·096 inches, or about two-thirds of the whole amount, were registered.

Westerly winds were more than usually prevalent during the quarter, it having blown from the S.W. on 34 days, from the W. on 19 days, and from the N.W. on 11 days. It blew from the S.E. on 9 days, from the N.E. on 7 days, from the E. and S. on 3 days each, from the N. on 1 day, and the air was calm on 5 days, at 9.30 A.M.

HEALTH OF THE PEOPLE.

The number of deaths registered during the quarter ended September 30th, 1869, amounted to 18,497, contrasting favourably with the mortality in the corresponding periods of the previous five years, when the average number of deaths was 18,669.

Scarlet fever was the most prevalent of zymotic diseases. Sixty-two of the Registrars referred to this disease in their notes. The North-Eastern Division suffered most from scarlet fever, deaths from this disease having been reported from 28 Registrars' districts. Of the 61 deaths registered in the Registrar's district of Keady, Armagh Union, 12 resulted from scarlet fever, and 3 from diphtheria. In the Castlereagh District, No. 1, Belfast Union, 136 deaths were registered; the Registrar stated that "during the quarter 48 deaths occurred from scarlatina, the district having been visited by an epidemic of a very malignant character." In the Castlereagh District, No. 3, one-fifth of the deaths resulted from scarlet fever. In Ballybay, one-fourth of the deaths were ascribed to scarlet fever. Drogheda suffered much from scarlet fever; in the East Ward, Drogheda, the total deaths registered amounted to 28, of these 16 resulted from scarlet fever; in the West Ward, of the 35 deaths registered, scarlet fever caused 17; in St. Mary's, 23 of the 63 deaths registered were the result of scarlet fever. The Registrar of East Ward, Drogheda, stated that "the sanitary arrangements of the district were very deficient."

The prevalence of measles and whooping-cough was reported by many Registrars.

The deaths from typhus and typhoid or enteric fever were numerous. The sanitary arrangements of the districts visited by fever were, in nearly every instance, most defective. The Registrar of Newbridge (a military station), Naas Union, stated that "continued fever has been prevalent in the town of Newbridge during the quarter owing chiefly, in my opinion, to the total want of proper sanitary arrangements." The Registrars of Athlone (a garrison town), Jamestown (Carrick-on-Shannon Union), Mohill, and Tipperary, made equally unfavourable reports as to the sanitary condition of their districts. The Tipperary Registrar, referring to the prevalence of fever in the town, remarked, "This I attribute to the overcrowded, filthy, and neglected state of the houses of the poor, and more especially their unwillingness to send to hospital cases requiring prompt removal. Such occurring in quarters where the destitute poor chiefly reside, and where sanitary arrangements to secure cleanliness and good sewerage are sadly neglected, the wonder is that we are not more frequently visited by zymotic diseases. I do think that until the sanitary code is rendered as compulsory in the district as the 'Vaccination Act,' it will be impossible to prevent those nuisances that usually are in close proximity to the doors of the poor," &c. The sanitary condition of the Goleen District, in Skull Union, appeared to be deplorable. The Registrar reported as follows:—"Nothing can be worse than the sanitary state of the village of Goleen. There is but one well, and this is kept in a most disgusting way. There are seven occupied houses in the village, and during eleven years there have been about 30 deaths, and we had neither fever, famine, nor cholera. At Rock Island (a village under the Government), about two miles from Goleen, where sanitary measures are well carried out, there are eleven houses, with large families in each, yet during thirty-one years there were but 8 deaths, and those thirty-one years included the famine, fever, and cholera years."

Some Registrars reported favourably as to the sanitary state of their districts. In reference to the healthy state of his district, the Registrar of the Killaan District, Ballinasloe Union, said, "I have to attribute the absence of fever and other diseases to the indefatigable exertions of our Relieving Officer in obliging the people to whitewash their houses, and to observe the greatest cleanliness."

No death from small-pox was returned during the quarter.

The Registrar of Swords, Balrothery Union, reported the death of an "old man, aged 82 years, who died from hydrophobia, the disease having manifested itself after the expiration of one month from the date of the bite of a rabid dog."

The deaths of many persons who had attained a very advanced age were registered, including the following, whose ages (as stated) were 102, 105, 100, 103, 102, and 100 years respectively. The foregoing deaths occurred in the Omagh, Carrick-on-Shannon, Strokestown, Ballyvaghan, Dunmanway, and Mallow Unions.

From various parts of the country most favourable reports were forwarded by the Registrars as regards the benefits resulting from the successful working of "the Compulsory Vaccination Act."

THE WEATHER.

Quarterly
Reports.Fourth
Quarter.

The mean height of the barometer during the fourth quarter of the year 1869 was 29·981 inches, against an average of 29·769 inches for the corresponding quarter of the preceding five years (1864-8); the highest reading (30·609 inches) was on the 5th December, at 9.30, P.M., the air being calm, and the lowest (28·789 inches) was on the 13th of the same month, at 3.30, P.M., wind S.W.

The mean temperature of the air during the quarter was 44·6°, against an average of 45·4° for the corresponding quarter of the five years immediately preceding; the maximum temperature (74·1°) was on the 10th October, and the minimum (11·0°) on the 27th December.

Rain or snow fell on 46 days during the quarter. The rain-fall measured 6·709 inches, against an average of 7·734 inches for the corresponding quarter of the preceding five years. The greatest monthly rain-fall during the quarter was in December, when 2·760 inches were registered.

As usual, westerly winds were the most prevalent during the quarter, the wind having blown from the S.W. on 30 days, from the N.W. on 20 days, and from the W. on 12 days. It blew on 7 days from the N., on 5 days from the S.E., on 2 days each from the N.E. and E., and on only 1 day from the S. It was calm on as many as 13 days during the quarter at 9.30, A.M.

HEALTH OF THE PEOPLE.

The number of deaths registered during the fourth quarter of 1869 amounted to 20,671, showing a decrease of 501 deaths as compared with the average number of deaths registered in the corresponding quarter of the preceding five years.

Scarlet fever was remarkably prevalent, and in some districts most fatal. Ninety-seven of the Registrars stated that scarlet fever prevailed more or less in their districts during the quarter. The greatest mortality from this disease obtained in the North-Eastern and Eastern Divisions.

Belfast suffered severely from an epidemic of scarlet fever. Thus, in No. 1 District, of the 162 deaths which were registered during the quarter, scarlet fever contributed no less than 68; in No. 4 District 424 deaths were registered, of these 147 were caused by scarlet fever; in No. 9 District 6 of the 26 deaths registered were referred to scarlet fever; and in the Castlereagh District, No. 1 (Belfast), scarlet fever caused 62 of the 148 deaths registered. The disease proved fatal also in the following Registrars' districts, viz.:—Keady (Armagh Union), Mount-charles (Donegal Union), Fintona (Omagh Union), Carney (Sligo Union), Drogheda, No. 2 District, Monasterboice, and St. Mary's; all in the Drogheda Union.

Typhus and typhoid fever prevailed to a certain extent in various parts of the country. The Registrar of the Hollymount District, Ballinrobe Union, reported—“A few sporadic cases of common continued fever with an unusual tendency to relapse; 1 death from this cause.”

Several deaths from whooping-cough were registered in the Unions of Lisburn, Lurgan, Newtownards, and Dundalk.

In the Randalstown District, Antrim Union, 4 deaths occurred from diphtheria, and 2 from croup.

There were only 3 deaths from cerebro-spinal arachnitis reported; 1 death occurred in the Cloonbur District, Oughterard Union, and the other 2 in Dundalk District.

A death from glanders occurred in the Manorcunningham District, Letterkenny Union.

Chest affections were very prevalent.

During the quarter ended December 31st, 1869, but one death from small-pox was registered in Ireland. The death referred to occurred at the Hardwicke Hospital in Dublin—it was that of a sailor who arrived in Dublin from the Baltic, labouring under confluent small-pox.

Many of the Registrars testified to the satisfactory manner in which the provisions of the Compulsory Vaccination Act were being carried out. The Registrar of the Roosky District, Strokestown Union, made the following report—"The Compulsory Vaccination Act is now enjoying its due reward in this district, even with the lower classes, who were strongly opposed to it not long since. I was often told that it was more for the benefit of the doctors, &c., than for the benefit of the people." The Registrar of the Killala District reported 141 cases of successful vaccination, against 50 in the corresponding period of 1868. He stated that "the increase is the result of the Guardians having put the law in force against those parents who have not complied with the Act 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 52." The Registrar of Ringville, Dungarvan Union, was very sanguine as to the results of vaccination; he said—"The Compulsory Vaccination Act is effectually carried out. Small-pox will, I trust, become a disease not known to medical nomenclature henceforth."

The sanitary condition of some localities was most deplorable. The Registrar of Keady District, Armagh Union, in referring to the prevalence of scarlet fever, said—"It prevails chiefly among the very poor, and its spread and continuance may be explained by the fact of the sufferers from it refusing to go to hospital; whole families when afflicted with it occupying not only the same apartment, but the same bed—if a wisp of straw on the floor can be called a bed, as in too many cases this is the only one they have. In such circumstances neither cleanliness nor ventilation can be obtained, and medical attendance is given at the imminent risk of life. Indeed it is obvious how useless medical treatment must be where the ordinary laws of health cannot be enforced, where the sufferers (overcrowded in their small apartments) will not admit the fresh air, where cleanliness is impossible, and where they have not the necessary means of warm clothing or sufficient nutriment on their recovery. The consequence is that many who recover in the first instance are cut off afterwards by dropsy or suppuration about the neck, owing to insufficient clothing, and too early exposure after an attack." The Registrars of Newtownards, Carney, No. 1 (Sligo Union), Holmpatrick (Balrothery Union), Clondalkin (Dublin South), Mohill, Rathangan (Edenderry), and Oranmore (Galway Union), described the sanitary condition of their districts as lamentable. On the other hand, the Registrars of Cork, No. 8, Kilpatrick (Cashel Union), and Killarney, No. 2, testified to the beneficial results of improved sanitary arrangements.

The deaths of several persons stated to have attained very advanced ages were registered. Among them may be instanced the following:—In the Cookstown District, of the deaths registered 8 were between 60 and 70, 2 between 70 and 80, 8 between 80 and 90, and 4 over 90 years; in Bryansford (Kilkeel Union), the death of a person aged 104 years was registered; in Knoeknadona (Lisburn Union), a woman aged 100 years; in Carney, No. 1 (Sligo Union), "four died at the advanced ages of 76, 80, 83, 89 years, and 1 at 102—a female in good health with all her faculties but little impaired to within a few days of her death." The death of a centenarian was registered in each of the following districts:—James-town (Carrick-on-Shannon Union), Riverstown (Parsonstown), Johnstown (Urlingford), Kilrush, Bandon, Castletown, Anascaul (Dingle), Coolmountain (Dunmanway), Goleen (Skull). In the 4 latter districts the ages were—110, 106, 108, and 105 years, respectively.

NUMBER OF MARRIAGES, BIRTHS, AND DEATHS REGISTERED IN EACH OF THE PROVINCES.

Quarterly Reports

Fourth Quarter.

Marriages.—The number of marriages registered in the province of Ulster during the fourth quarter of 1869 amounted to 2,527, a number representing an annual ratio of 1 in every 182 of the estimated population ; in Leinster the number was 1,818, or 1 in 185 ; in Munster 1,263, or 1 in 275 ; and in Connaught 581, or only 1 in 377.

The following Table shows, by PROVINCES, the number of Marriages registered during the FOURTH quarter of the years 1867, 1868, and 1869, together with the annual ratio to the estimated Population represented by the number of Marriages registered :—

Deaths.—There were 5,863 deaths registered in the province of Leinster during the fourth quarter of 1869, the annual ratio afforded being 1 in 57 ; in Munster there were registered 4,874 deaths, or 1 in 72 of the estimated population ; in Ulster, 7,457 or 1 in 62 ; and in Connaught, 2,477, or 1 in 86.

TOPOGRAPHICAL DESCRIPTION of the EIGHT DIVISIONS into which IRELAND has been divided in the foregoing TABLES.

No. I. The North-Eastern Division.—This division may be described by a line passing southward from Lough Foyle through the counties of Londonderry, Tyrone, and Armagh, to Lough Bawn, in the county of Monaghan, and thence eastward to Carlingford Lough; the north and east being on the seaboard.

No. II. The North-Western Division is bounded on the east by the division just described, from Lough Foyle to a point a little south of Six Mile Cross, in the county of Tyrone, and may be described by a line drawn thence S.W. through the county of Fermanagh to the south of Enniskillen, embracing that portion of the north-west angle of the county of Cavan belonging to the Enniskillen Union, into the county of Leitrim, crossing Lough Allen, thence into the county of Sligo, to a point situated to the southward of the town of Ballymote, and thence extending north to Ballysadare Bay; the remainder of the division is bounded by the sea. It contains Loughs Erne and Derg, and part of Lough Allen, and large portions of it are mountainous.

No. III. The Eastern Division is situated in the provinces of Leinster and Ulster; it extends along the Irish Sea and St. George's Channel, from Warrenspoint, in the county of Down, to the south of Cahore Point, in the county of Wexford, stretching inland about twenty-five miles, and embracing the counties of Louth, Dublin, and Wicklow, and portions of the counties of Carlow, Cavan, Kildare, Meath, and Wexford; together with small portions of the counties of Armagh and Monaghan.

No. IV. The North Midland Division is situated in the provinces of Leinster, Ulster, and Connaught, and extends southward from its junction with the "North-Western" division near Six Mile Cross, in the county of Tyrone, to Tyrrellspass, in the county of Westmeath. Virginia, in the county of Cavan, is situated on its eastern border, and Tulsk, in the county of Roscommon, on its western.

No. V. The South Midland Division situated in the provinces of Leinster and Munster, extends from the Hill of Down, in the county of Meath, southward to Borris, in the county of Carlow. Its southern boundary may be described by a line drawn thence to New Birmingham, in the county of Tipperary, and from that point south to Fethard, in the same county, thence westward to the northern base of the Galty Mountains, and in a north-westerly direction, to Pallasgreen, in the county of Limerick. On the east it is bounded by the "Eastern" division, and on the west by the "Western" and the "South-Western" divisions.

No. VI. The Western Division.—This division extends southwards from Sligo and Killala Bays to the northern bank of the River Shannon, lying westward of Limerick; the extreme points, north and south, being Benwee Head, in the county of Mayo, and Loop Head, in the county of Clare, a distance in or about 120 miles, which, however, does not represent the extent of seaboard, the western coast being indented by numerous bays and inlets. This division has been extended much more inland than the eastern division, as from its exposure to the Atlantic Ocean, and the prevalence of westerly winds (which blow for nearly three-fourths of the year), the climate must be affected for a considerable distance inland; the Unions situated on the extreme east are Boyle, Castlereagh, Glennamaddy, Mountbellew, Ballinasloe, and Portumna.

No. VII. The South-Eastern Division.—This division extends from its junction with the "Eastern" division southward of Cahore Point, in the county of Wexford, along the eastern and southern coasts to the east of Cork Harbour, and is bounded on the north by the South Midland division. It embraces the county of Waterford; nearly the whole of the county of Wexford; parts of the counties of Carlow, Kilkenny, and Tipperary; that portion of the county of Limerick (38,550 acres) comprised in the Mitchelstown Union, and a portion of the eastern side of Cork County.

No. VIII. The South-Western Division extends along the southern and western coasts from Cork Harbour to the river Shannon, and embraces the county of Kerry, nearly the whole of the counties of Cork and Limerick, and a small portion of the county of Clare, comprised in the Limerick Union.

NOTE.—This table has been constructed for the years 1801 to 1831—By adopting the rates of increase of the male and female population between 1821 and 1831, as shown by the Irish Census Reports of 1831—the first complete Census of Ireland having been taken in 1821.

1832 to 1841—By adopting the rate of increase between the population of 1831 and 1841, according to the Irish Census Report of 1841.

1842 to 1846—By taking the English average birth-rate of 1 in 31, and death-rate of 1 in 45, and deducting the annual emigration from Ireland according to the returns received from the Emigration Commissioners in England.

1847 to 1851—The English birth-rate, as above, was used, deducting the number of deaths and the number of emigrants in each year, as given in the Irish Census Reports of 1851; the difference between the number arrived at by this computation and the actual number by the Census of 1851 was divided over the intervening years in proportion to the number of recorded deaths and the number of emigrants.

1852 to 1869—The English birth and death rates, as above, were used, deducting the number of emigrants according to the returns obtained by the Registrar-General for Ireland, and apportioning the difference as explained for the last period.

* The Registration Counties consist of groups of Superintendent Registrars' Districts or Poor Law Unions. Whenever a District or Union extends into more than one County, it is assigned wholly to that County in which the greater portion of the population is located; hence all the Registration Counties differ more or less from the Counties Proper.

† See note (†) page 36.

* Shankill and Belfast Dispensary Districts were united on 1st July, 1869, and three new sub-districts added to the latter, viz. — No. 7, No. 8, and No. 9. † For remainder of Belfast see next page.

NOTE.—The Registrars' Districts are sub-divisions of the Unions or Superintendent Registrars' Districts, and are identical with the Dispensary Districts of the same names, except in a few instances.

The letter W denotes that the Registrar's District contains within its limits the Workhouse belonging to the Union or Superintendent Registrar's District.

Wherever the minus sign (—) is prefixed to the numbers given in the column headed "Excess of Births over Deaths," it denotes that the births in the Registrar's District, instead of exceeding the deaths, were, in fact, less than the deaths, to the extent stated.

* Several Electoral Divisions were taken from Balla District on 20th April, 1869, and added to Castlebar, which was then divided into two districts. The numbers given for Castlebar, No. 1, and Balla include the Births and Deaths that occurred within the area comprised in Castlebar, No. 2, up to the above date.

† The name of Clifden, No. 2, Registration district, was changed to Inishbofin, on 1st June, 1869.

IRELAND.—SUPPLEMENTARY TABLE of the

[In the foregoing Tables all the Diseases, either having a distinct character, or fatal to any considerable number of persons, are classified under 114 heads; some of which, however, include groups of very distinct diseases,—such as are fatal to only a few persons, or diseases which are often confounded with other diseases. The rule has been to refer the distinct diseases to heads under which the cases were so numerous that the additional numbers would not interfere with the calculated proportions. Where it is desired, partial correction,

LETTER to the REGISTRAR-GENERAL on the CAUSES of DEATH in IRELAND, from WILLIAM M. BURKE, ESQ., F.C.P.I.

YEAR 1869.

SIR,

I beg to bring under your notice a few remarks as to the principal causes of the deaths registered during the year 1869.

I may here observe that many persons die in Ireland unattended by any medical man, and that some physicians and surgeons object to the form of the certificate of the cause of death. To these facts may be attributed the large number of "uncertified" deaths returned to your department.

The total deaths registered during the year 1869 numbered 89,593, against 86,185 in the year 1868.

I. ZYMOTIC DISEASES.

The deaths from diseases termed zymotic amounted to 15,555—7,830 males and 7,725 females—showing a decreased mortality of 932 when compared with the preceding year. One in every 5·8 of the total deaths registered during the year was caused by zymotic disease.

Fever proved fatal in 3,399 cases—1,761 males and 1,638 females—being in the proportion of 1 in 26 of all the deaths. Of the deaths from fever, 891 were referred to typhus, 790 to enteric or typhoid, and 1,718 to simple continued fever or "fever" without any reference to type.

Scarlet fever showed an increase of 974 on last year's returns; the deaths from this disease having been 3,670—1,851 males and 1,819 females—or 1 in every 24 of all the deaths.

Whooping-cough, on the contrary, was less fatal by 941 deaths than in the year 1868, only 1,439 persons having died from this disease—631 males and 808 females.

Measles killed 948 persons—451 males and 497 females. The number registered from this disease in 1868 was 1,251.

Croup caused 1,389 deaths—736 males and 653 females.

243 deaths were referred to diphtheria and 273 to quinsy.

Diarrhoea contributed 1,731 deaths—925 males and 806 females.

Metria or puerperal fever proved fatal in 303 instances.

Two men died from hydrophobia and 4 from glanders.

Only 20 deaths were attributed to small-pox.

II. CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES.

The deaths from constitutional diseases amounted to 16,577—8,065 males and 8,512 females—or 1 in 5·4 of all the deaths registered.

Phthisis, or pulmonary consumption, killed 9,983 persons—4,783 males and 5,200 females—or 1 in 9 of the total deaths.

Under the vague heading dropsy, 1,463 deaths were returned—645 males and 818 females.

1,663 persons died from cancer—772 males and 891 females. In the year preceding, the number of deaths from cancer was 1,647, and from dropsy 1,432.

To mesenteric disease 1,249 deaths were referred.

The number of deaths from hydrocephalus, or water on the brain, was 1,077—602 males and 475 females. The number registered in the year 1868 was 1,085.

Scrofula was the assigned cause of 925 deaths against 957 in the preceding year.

III. LOCAL DISEASES.

Under the head of local diseases 31,497 deaths were tabulated. Of these 17,112 were males and 14,385 females, or 1 in 2·8 of the total deaths.

Diseases affecting the nervous system caused 8,628 deaths—4,832 males and 3,796 females. Of these 3,974 were ascribed to convulsions, 927 to apoplexy, 1,675 to paralysis, 618 to inflammation of the brain and its membranes, 342 to epilepsy, 206 to insanity, 8 to chorea (7 of these being females), and 878 to brain disease unspecified.

Diseases of the circulatory system resulted in 3,521 deaths—1,871 males and 1,650 females. Of these 78 were referred to pericarditis or inflammation of the heart's covering, and 111 to aneurism—a similar number to that recorded in the previous year.

Diseases of the respiratory organs (not including phthisis or pulmonary consumption) killed 12,845 persons—6,661 males and 6,184 females—against 10,393 in the year 1868. Bronchitis caused 9,080 deaths, or about 1 in 10 of all the deaths registered, and pneumonia or inflammation of the lungs 1,897.

Diseases of the digestive organs caused 4,806 deaths—2,600 males and 2,206 females—classified as follows:—553 to enteritis, 263 to gastritis, 305 to peritonitis, 320 to ascites, 137 to ulceration of intestines, 135 to hernia, 381 to ileus, 49 to intussusception, 55 to stricture of intestines, 14 to fistula, 1,008 to stomach disease undefined, 1 to disease of pancreas, 265 to hepatitis or inflammation of the liver, 221 to jaundice, 1,083 to liver disease undefined, and 16 to disease of the spleen.

1,128 deaths—886 males and 242 females—were ascribed to diseases of the urinary organs, viz.:—257 resulted from nephria or Bright's disease, 101 from diabetes, 84 from ischuria, 68 from cystitis, or inflammation of the bladder, 56 from nephritis, or inflammation of the kidneys, 20 from stone in the bladder, and 542 from kidney disease unspecified.

Diseases of the generative organs caused 131 deaths, diseases of bones and joints 211 deaths, and diseases of the integumentary system 227 deaths.

IV. DEVELOPMENTAL DISEASES.

The total deaths in this class (which includes those diseases incidental to the growth and decay of the human frame) amounted to 21,020—9,171 males and 11,849 females—or 1 in 4·3 of the total deaths. Of this number as many as 15,646 were attributed to old age—6,682 males and 8,964 females.

228 deaths were attributed to premature birth; 18 to cyanosis—being double the number registered in the previous year—the ages of those who died from this disease in 1869 were as follows:—14 were under one year old, 1 was two years old, 1 between five and ten, 1 between ten and fifteen, and 1 between fifteen and twenty.

Nineteen deaths were caused by spina bifida, and 21 by other malformations.

318 deaths were ascribed to teething.

650 women died in child-bed, exclusive of the 303 whose deaths resulted from metria or puerperal fever, making a total of 953; the number of deaths from child-birth returned in 1868 was 940.

V. VIOLENT DEATHS.

The deaths from violence registered during the year numbered 2,131—1,459 males and 672 females—or 1 in 42 of all the deaths, being about 4 in every 10,000 of the population.

1,843 of the foregoing resulted from accidental causes, viz. :—663 from fractures and contusions, 61 from wounds, 468 from burns and scalds, 22 from poison, 402 from drowning, 70 from suffocation, and 157 from accidental causes unspecified.

144 deaths were homicidal. The number of deaths from homicide registered in the year 1868 was 143.

100 persons committed suicide—73 males and 27 females—or about 18 in every 1,000,000 of the population.

In 44 instances of violent death it was not stated whether the death resulted from accident or otherwise.

In 447 instances of sudden death the cause was not ascertained.

The cause of death was unspecified or ill-defined in 2,366 instances, or 1 in every 39 of all the deaths registered; in the preceding year the proportion of deaths from causes unspecified was 1 in 33.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

W. M. BURKE.

To

The Registrar-General.

COPY of CIRCULAR relating to REGISTRATION of MARRIAGES celebrated by the ROMAN CATHOLIC CLERGY, 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 90.

General Register Office, Dublin,
31st December, 1863.

SIR,

I request you will furnish each Parish Priest within your District—who may apply to you for the same—with six blank Forms of Certificates of Marriage, which you will carefully take from the Certificate Book forwarded to you, and also with six of the printed Envelopes, addressed to “The Registrar of Births, Deaths, and Marriages.”

By this course—which has been strongly recommended to me by many Dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church, and approved of by the Law Officers of the Crown*—the convenience of the Catholic Population, especially those of the poorer classes, will be greatly promoted in regard to the Registration of their Marriages.

A further supply of Certificates will be forwarded on your application—from which blank Forms will be furnished by you, from time to time, to those Parish Priests within your District who may require them. You will request each Rev. Gentleman obtaining the Certificates, to give you a receipt for them (on the accompanying Forms), in order that you may be able to account to me for all the Certificates intrusted to your care; and you will furnish me, at the end of each month, with the Names and Addresses of those Clergymen to whom you supply them. You will observe they are on Water-marked paper, with the words “Certificate of Marriage” printed thereon.

I beg to say that I feel assured you will discharge the duties of your office with zeal, discretion, and courtesy, and thus largely contribute to the success of the very Important Measures, in the carrying out of which you have so readily undertaken to assist by accepting the office of Registrar.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

WILLIAM DONNELLY,

Registrar-General.

To the

Registrar of Births, Deaths, and Marriages,
District of _____

* The Right Honorable Thomas O'Hagan, Attorney-General—now Lord Chancellor; and James A. Lawson, Esq., Solicitor-General—now a Judge of the Common Pleas.
